

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY

OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK
1841 - 1916

WITH the opening of its Fall term, September 15th, 1916, Fordham University enters upon its seventy-sixth year. As the leading Catholic University of America, it offers exceptional educational advantages to young men. With the Jesuit system of education, the moral and intellectual faculties of the student are developed side by side, sending forth into the world men of sound judgment, of acute and rounded intellect, of upright and manly conscience. The boy of twelve can enter St. John's Hall, continuing through St. John's High School to St. John's College, to Fordham University Law, Medical or Pharmaceutical Schools. 1,676 day and resident students enrolled last year.

President of the University, Rev. Joseph A. Mulry, S. J.

LAW SCHOOL

of Fordham University

Located in the Woolworth Building, 233 Broadway, adjacent to Federal and State Courts. Case system of instruction. Afternoon and evening classes. Three years to degree of Bachelor of Law. Four years to degree of Master of Law. Will reopen Sept. 28th.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

of Fordham University

Four year course with special attention to practical bed-side and clinical training. Associated with Fordham Hospital. Modern laboratories. Excellent equipment. Valuable medical library and museum. Will reopen Sept. 29th.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

of Fordham University

Two years course to degree of Graduate in Pharmacy (Ph. G.). Three years, Pharmaceutical Chemist (Ph. C.). Four years, Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy (B. S. in Phar.). Two years additional to B. S. in Phar. course, to degree of Doctor of Pharmacy (Phar. D.). Will reopen Sept. 18th.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE

of Fordham University

School of Arts and Sciences. Four year courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Science. Approved by New York State Board of Regents. Fall term opens September 15th.

ST. JOHN'S HIGH SCHOOL

Preparatory for St. John's College

Well-rounded preparatory course of four years. Graduates receive Regents' certificates admitting them to college or professional school. Boarding and day scholars. Fall term opens September 12th.

ST. JOHN'S HALL

for Young Boys

A home for boys between twelve and sixteen years studying at St. John's Grammar or High School. Located at the west end of the campus, with independent ball field, tennis courts and playground. Fall term opens September 12th.

For further Information, address

THE REGISTRAR

Fordham University, Fordham, New York City